

Please increase funding for the E-Rate program. Our students have increased demands for online resources. Access to high-speed broadband is the key to modern teaching and student success.